154TH FIGHTER INTERCEPTOR GROUP

Vol. 19 No. 4 APRIL 6, 1974

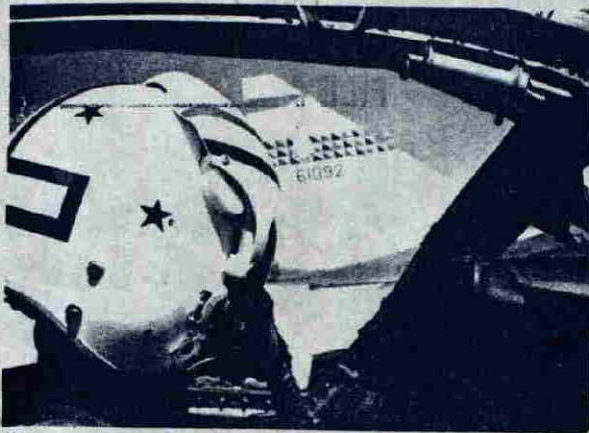

PILOTS RECEIVE FLIGHT SAFETY AWARD FOR ACCIDENT FREE FLYING

(see "Awards" story inside paper)

RECRUITING IS THE SINGLE MOST IMPORTANT SUBJECT FACING EACH ONE OF US IN THE FIGHTER GROUP!

Security Policemen are at the top of the most wanted list, with personnel in just about every area of

F-102 pilot trainees are needed too, so the sky's the limit in so far as job opportunities are concerned. Friends and relatives are among the most productive sources of Guardsmen and women -- so bring them in and give them a look at the Guard.

GUARDSMEN ARE ELIGIBLE FOR HDODEA INSURANCE PLAN

As a Guardsman, you are entitled to participate in the Hawaii Department of Defense Employee's Association (HDODEA) group life insurance plan by joining as an associate member for a one-time fee of $2.00. The enrollment period has been extended through April 30.

The program is not a drill status insurance program; it is good year around. In addition to low cost, you are eligible for distribution of reserves reimbursed to HDODEA by the insuring company.

There are plans for $10,000 and $20,000 coverage with quarterly premiums (according to age) ranging from $3.99 to $15.78.

For an application for membership, contact HDODEA Director, SMSgt Art Lee at 449-5547.

The KUKAILIMOKU is an official Class 1 Air Force newspaper, published monthly on April 6, 1974 for the personnel of the 154th Fighter Interceptor Group, Hawaii Air National Guard, PACAF at Hickam Air Force Base, APO San Francisco 96343. Opinions expressed herein do not necessarily represent those of the USAF.

GUARDSMEN EARN COLLEGE CREDITS

WASHINGTON, D.C. (NGAUS) -- Air Guardsmen may now be earning college credits for their technical and occupational specialty through arrangements made with the Community College of the Air Force.

The National Guard Bureau recently announced the CCAF has been accredited by an institution of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and is offering transcripts that may apply toward Liberal Arts degrees.

Base Education Services Officers have further details.

SPRING CLEAN-UP WEEK 5-11 MAY 1974
HELP KEEP HICKAM AFB CLEAN!

COMBAT SUPPORT SQ. STILL IN GREAT NEED OF MORE PERSONNEL

Things haven't changed much since the last strength report for the CSS. The squadron is still in need of a number of personnel to fill positions in the following areas:

SECURITY POLICE
GROUND COMMUNICATIONS
ADMINISTRATION
FOOD SERVICES

More information on the available positions can be obtained from the CSS office on the second floor of the hangar, makai side.

If you are in an over-manned unit and would like to retrain, or have a friend that would make a good Guardsman, contact the CSS for help.

SPRINGTIME IS CLEAN UP TIME!

MSgt. Bernard Kim (supply) reports that this year's Hickam AFB clean up campaign is themed, "Springtime is clean up time", and starts on May 5 continuing until the 11th. A slogan contest will be held with prizes for individuals and organizations. More on that later.

Everyone is urged to clean up his shop or area and especially to remove junk and bulky items. Collection point for these items will be back of the Supply Building and deadline for hauling will be May 9. Look for the colorful signs and get rid of your junk!

SUPPLY SQUADRON REPORTS NEWS

TSgt. Frank Yamamoto and SSgt Sherman Dang are presently in Washington, D.C. pulling duty at the ANG Logistics Readiness Center in the Pentagon. They are working with other ANG personnel keeping track of NORS (Not Operationally Ready - Supply) items for all ANG units. TSgt. Frank Montizor and SSgt. Paustino Rivera just returned from their tour in the Pentagon. TSgt. Kalfred Chang is just finishing his stint there.

TSgt. Douglas Abe is in attendance at Lowry AFB, Colorado completing his requirements for the Supply Inspector course.

Capt. Gerald T. Morihara was promoted to Major effective 22 March 74 pending Federal recognition. He is the drill status Management Officer for the Supply Squadron and is the latest recipient of the James Y. Sato Memorial Award.

MAJOR MANAGEMENT CHANGES

Major John Oshiro has assumed the position of air technician Management and Procedures Officer as of 4 March. His promotion followed the promotion of Lt. Col. Daniel K.C. Au to the Chief of Supply and Services. Capt. James K. Hamura, a former drill status officer, became the technician equipment Management Officer on 1 Apr.
