All candidates for Group Superintendent positions must possess an associate's degree or higher from a nationally or regionally accredited academic institution and must have previously attended the ANG CMSgt Orientation Course (ANG CMSOC) if a current CMSgt. Tenure for 9G100 will be for a minimum of two years and six years maximum. Only Airmen who can serve the minimum tour will be considered by the panel.

The Group Superintendent is the senior enlisted leader within the group and is a key member of the group's leadership team. Group Superintendents are the commander's key enlisted advisor on operational effectiveness and the organization, training and equipping of enlisted Airmen. They ensure the commander's directions and policies are carried out and the Airmen understand and are dedicated to the mission of the command. They are responsible for the professional development and proper utilization of the group's enlisted force. They work in concert with other enlisted leaders such as squadron superintendents, squadron career enlisted managers and First Sergeants to oversee the readiness, training, health, morale, welfare and quality of life of assigned personnel. Note: The Mission Support Group Superintendent provides Group Superintendent support to the Wing Staff Agencies. Complete listing of Group Superintendent duties and responsibilities can be found in AFI36-2109 chapter 5.
