Dear Eligible Employee,

Your coverage in the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHB) ends on the last day of the pay period in which you separate from federal service, subject to a 31-day temporary extension of coverage (at no cost to you) for conversion to a non-group contract. You also have the right to temporarily continue your FEHB coverage for up to 18 months after your separation instead of converting to a non-group contract at this time. This is known as the Temporary Continuation of Coverage (TCC) Program.

If you choose to continue your health coverage under the TCC Program, you must pay the full amount of the premium (both the employee and government shares) plus a two-percent administrative charge. You can find current premiums on the Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) website at: <http://www.opm.gov/insure/health/planinfo/guides/index.asp>. Click on link for the guide, "RI 70-5" (Federal Benefits for Temporary Continuation of Coverage TCC and Former Spouse Enrollees).

Your enrollment charges begin on the day after the 31-day period of free coverage ends. If you continue your coverage to the end of the 18-month period, you will have another 31-day temporary extension of coverage for conversion to a non-group contract. Additional information on the TCC Program can be found on OPM's website at: <http://www.opm.gov/insure/health/eligibility/tcc/INDEX.asp>.

We also want to inform you that the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (ACA) did not eliminate the TCC Program or change the TCC rules. If you would like to learn more about the ACA including the health insurance marketplace, please visit www.healthcare.gov.

If you are interested in continuing your FEHB coverage under the TCC Program, please contact this office to request a registration form. You must enroll in the TCC Program within 60 days after the date of your separation, or within 60 days of the date you received this notice, whichever is later. If you have any questions, please call the HRO Services Section at (808) 672-1006, Option 3.

Sincerely,

HRO Services Section
