

Schedule of WWI Centennial Events for November 11, 2018

6 a.m. Battle's O'er worldwide bagpipe tribute

A nationwide, mass playing of the retreat march, When the Battle's O'er outside cathedrals and other locations 6:00 a.m. on Sunday, November 11, 2018. This is the time when the Armistice was actually signed on November 11, 1918. It came into effect at 11 a.m. Our bagpipers will play at front gate of the state's WWI Memorial, the War Memorial Natatorium. To sign up and get involved: <http://www.collegeofpiping.org/sign-up-for-battles-oer-tribute/>

9 a.m. –5 p.m.: WWI History Museum and Film Festival

Open to public with exhibits and costumed re-enactors from the Hawaii Historic Arms Association, Hawaii Swimming Hall of Fame, Hawaii State Library, Red Cross of Hawaii, Friends of the Natatorium and others. Historians will be on hand for talk story and Q&A sessions.

Our Film Festival <https://tinyurl.com/y7lapu2c> is a continuous run of WWI-themed films including the 2018 animated film "Sergeant Stubby: An American Hero" <https://tinyurl.com/pnplpud>. Watch that trailer here <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ab0pd9oNf7Q>. The locally produced War Memorial Natatorium documentary "The Tank" will also be screened.

10:00 a.m.: Aircraft flyover Tribute (Vintage Aviation)

10:30 a.m.: Musical prelude by 111th Army Band

11:00 a.m.: Bells of Peace

Honoring the moment when the Armistice went into effect at the 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month. Churches and temples across the country are asked to sound their bells 21 times in 5 second intervals at 11am local time. The national commission is also developing sample content for local churches to include in their services that weekend. Churches and temples can sign up and get more information here: <https://www.worldwar1centennial.org/index.php/546-events/bell-tolling/bells-of-peace/4558-bells-of-peace-concept.html>

11:00 a.m.: Veterans Day Service and Commemoration of Armistice Centenary

Elements: Parade of Flags, Hula Halau Olana, Honors to the Nation, F-22 Flyover, Speakers: Governor Ige, Mayor Caldwell, MG Logan. 111th Army Band postlude performance.

1:45 p.m.: Lion Dance by Yeung Dak

2pm — Marine Forces Pacific Band

2pm - Royal Hawaiian Band Concert at the Kapiolani Park Bandstand

The band will play a program of patriotic music to celebrate the WWI Centennial.

3:00 pm. The Daughters of Hawaii Chorus.

4 pm: Raiatea Helm Concert on the Centennial Main Stage

Ms. Helm will perform a program of old-Hawaii classics including compositions by WWI veteran a beloved composer, R.A. Anderson.

6:30- 8:30 p.m. — Harry James Orchestra concert and dance on the Centennial Main Stage

The legendary Harry James Orchestra will open their concert with a selection of WWI-era tunes followed by a shift to their trademark sound, WWII-era and big band jazz. A large dance floor will be available for all to enjoy an evening of swing.

8:45 p.m. — Grucci Company fireworks offshore fronting Natatorium