Governor's Veterans Day Ceremony CANCELED

WHEN: Wednesday, November 11, 2020

WHAT: Governor's Veterans Day Ceremony

WHO: Governor David Y. Ige, Colonel Stephen F. Logan, Congressional Leaders, State and City Government Officials, Consul Generals, U.S. Military Commanders, Veterans and their Families

As a reminder with real world events involving social distancing and limiting the community spread of the COVID-19 virus, the State Department of Defense in conjunction with the State Office of Veterans Services has canceled the Governor's Veterans Day Ceremony scheduled for Wednesday, November 11, 2020 at the Hawaii State Veterans Cemetery in Kaneohe.

Please take this opportunity to honor Veterans in your own way. We appreciate our State, Federal and Private essential employees who continue to serve. We are truly grateful.
