Main Event:
Hawaii Army Soldier For Life Appreciation Day
24 September 2022
The Hawaii Army Soldier for Life Council hopes that the entire Soldier for Life community consisting of retirees, veterans, family members, and caregivers, has survived and thrived in another challenging year. Both domestically and internationally, this year has been full of significant events that should keep historians busily writing for years to come. The seemingly continual rush of current events has made time fly making it difficult to believe it’s time to host another Appreciation Day.

The Council is always searching for ways to improve the Appreciation Day. One lesson learned from last year’s Appreciation Day was to avoid scheduling this event at the beginning of the fiscal year. Although we were able to conduct last year’s virtual Appreciation Day as scheduled, there were anxious moments as we waited for Congressional approval of the Defense Budget. Consequently, we have scheduled this year’s Appreciation Day at the end of the fiscal year thereby alleviating our worries about funding. The in-person and virtual 2022 Appreciation Day is scheduled on September 24, 2022, from 0900-1300 hrs in the Schofield Barracks Main Post Chapel. Another surprising lesson learned from the 2020 and 2021 Appreciation Days held virtually due to COVID-19 restrictions, was how attendance increased. Therefore, participants in this year’s Appreciation Day may choose to attend virtually through Facebook or in-person. The Council has reviewed feedback from previous Appreciation Days and crafted an agenda that meets your information desires. Despite these changes to the Appreciation Day, one thing that has not changed is the tremendous support provided by the U.S. Army Garrison Hawaii leadership and the Retirement Services Office Staff. They are truly committed to the Soldier for Life community by making the Appreciation Day a first-class event.

With the decreasing number of Americans who served in the voluntary military, it is becoming increasingly important for us to be advocates to protect and enhance our benefits. Since the Second World War, fewer members of Congress as well as locally elected officials have served in the military making it incumbent upon the Soldier for Life community to explain the need for these benefits. A prerequisite for advocacy is understanding the range of benefits available to the Soldier for Life community. Hopefully, information shared and networking at the Appreciation Day along with regular postings on the Council’s Facebook site assists with this effort.

Despite our challenging year, there are several things we should be grateful for. At the top of the list are the men and women who voluntarily march to the sound of the guns to preserve our freedom. Please remember our nation’s greatest heroes, those who made the ultimate sacrifice during the upcoming Veterans’ Day on November 11, 2022. Lastly, the Council wishes you a safe and enjoyable end of the year, thank you for your service to the nation!

Service-connected disability compensation is a tax-free benefit paid to Veterans for a disability (or disabilities) that either:

- Arose during service
- Was worsened or aggravated by service
- Is presumed by VA to be related to military service

VA pays benefits to eligible Service members and Veterans pursuing an approved education or training program. There are three primary VA education benefit programs that cover Active Duty, National Guard, and Reserve Service members and Veterans:

- Post-9/11 GI Bill (Chapter 33)
- Montgomery GI Bill-Active Duty (Chapter 30)
- Montgomery GI Bill-Selected Reserve (Chapter 1606)

VA loans have favorable terms, including no down payment or mortgage insurance premiums.

- Guaranteed Loans: VA can guarantee a portion of a loan made by a private lender to help you buy a home, a manufactured home, a lot for a manufactured home, or a condominium unit for your own personal occupancy. VA also guarantees loans for building, repairing, and improving homes.

- Refinancing Loans: Whether you have a VA or non-VA mortgage, VA can help you refinance your loan through a private lender.

- Specially Adapted Housing Grants: Certain severely disabled Veterans and military personnel can receive grants to adapt or acquire suitable housing.

When do you need to update DEERS?

DEERS must be updated whenever you experience a Qualifying Life Events (QLEs). A QLE opens a 90-day period for you to make eligible enrollment changes. QLEs include the following (this list is not all-inclusive):

- Change in sponsor status: Retiring and separating from Active Duty, Activating and Deactivating of National Guard and Reserve members.
- Change in family composition: Marriage and Divorce or Annullment, Birth and Adoption of a child, Children becoming adults, and Death in family.
- Change in address: Child move away to college, relocation and new contact information.

Why do you need to update your information in DEERS?

If the information is not updated in DEERS, it might affect eligibility and or delay access to health care.

- Your healthcare team can contact you with critical healthcare and appointment information.
- TRICARE can reach you with vital authorization, claims, and enrollment information.
- Inaccuracies can also cause delays in claims processing.

How do you update DEERS?

To learn how to update DEERS, visit https://www.TRICARE.mil/DEERS.
The following list of rare respiratory cancers have been added to VA’s regulations through an Interim Final Rule published in the Federal Register on April 26, 2022:

- Squamous cell carcinoma of the larynx.
- Squamous cell carcinoma of the trachea.
- Adenocarcinoma of the trachea.
- Salivary gland-type tumors of the trachea.
- Adenosquamous carcinoma of the lung.
- Large cell carcinoma of the lung.
- Salivary gland-type tumors of the lung.
- Sarcomatoid carcinoma of the lung.
- Typical and atypical carcinoid of the lung.

FEDVIP is a voluntary dental and vision program available to retirees and their eligible dependents. If you recently retired, you have 60 days from your retirement date to enroll in a FEDVIP plan. After 60 days, you may only enroll during open season.

If you have a qualifying life changing event (QLE), you are allowed to enroll or make changes to your FEDVIP plan within 60 days of the event. Please visit the site below on Qualifying Life Events (OLE).

https://www.benefeds.com/education-support/qles

To create your BENEFEDS account, visit http://www.benefeds.com/
Under Dental and Vision, select “ENROLL”. Once your account is established, you can manage your plan.

You're in Group A if your initial enlistment or appointment or that of your uniformed services sponsor began before Jan. 1, 2018. If you're a Group A retired beneficiary, you now pay a monthly TRICARE Select enrollment fee to maintain your TRICARE Select coverage. This is for coverage that started on Jan. 1, 2021. Only those family members enrolled in TRICARE Select (with a Group A retiree sponsor) pay the enrollment fee. If enrollment is only for one family member, then they would pay the individual enrollment fee, not the family enrollment fee.

For example, if one family member is enrolled in TRICARE Prime and another is enrolled in TRICARE Select, you’ll pay the appropriate enrollment fees for both plans. Remember that you pay TRICARE Prime and TRICARE Select individual and family fees separately.

The TRICARE Select enrollment fees for a Group A retired beneficiary are:
- For an individual plan, you'll pay $12.50 per month or $150 annually.
- For a family plan, you'll pay $25.00 per month or $300 annually.
- The catastrophic cap will increase from $3,000 to $3,500.
- Your TRICARE Select enrollment fees will apply towards your catastrophic cap.

Your enrollment fee is waived if you’re:
- An active duty family member
- A medically retired retiree or family member
- A survivor of an active duty sponsor or medically retired retiree
Upon the death of a Army retired service member, Casualty Assistance Center (CAC) notification is required. The entitlement to a retired pay is stopped on the date of death. The CAC serves as the primary contact for assistance. The CAC will coordinate for the appointment of a Casualty Assistance Officer (CAO) upon family request as well as play an integral part of informing eligible surviving family members of their benefits.

Gray Area for Retired Soldiers

This basic “Future Retiree” myPay account provides Gray Area Retirees a convenient way to keep their contact information updated with DFAS during the gray area period, so that they can receive important news from DFAS and from their Branch of Service.

With their current contact information, DFAS and their Branch of Service can keep them informed about changes in the laws or policies that may affect them, send them their Services’ Retiree Newsletter and the DFAS Retiree Newsletter, and remind them when the window to apply for retired pay is approaching.

In addition, with current contact information in the new myPay account, when DFAS receives a completed Gray Area Retiree application for retired pay from the Branch of Service, DFAS will send email status notifications to the retiree: when DFAS receives the application, when DFAS begins working on the application, and when DFAS completes it. Note: Gray Area Retirees should always work with their Branch of Service to complete their retired pay application. Please see specific information from your Service for the procedure and contacts.
Did you know that as a retiree you may request Army Emergency Relief (AER) assistance? AER provides loans that are always free from interest and fees. Grants are provided when repayment of a loan would create hardship. Help with emergency expenses may include but not limited to rent/mortgage, vehicle repair, emergency travel, utilities/deposit, funeral expenses, food, and medical/dental co-pays. There is no dollar limit for assistance based on the valid needs of your request. AER does not provide funds to cover nonessentials such as vacation, legal expenses, home loans, etc.

Visit http://www.aerhq.org/

What should I bring with me to request assistance?

- Valid Military ID Card
- Retired Pay Statement
- Supporting documents such as copies of estimates, billing for household expenses, letter or statement from landlord, etc.

• Don’t Let Fraudsters Take Your Money After a Disaster

After a natural disaster strikes, many people need services or housing. Unfortunately, scammers use natural disasters to trick survivors out of their money.

• Get tips from the Federal Trade Commission (FTC) about spotting disaster scams and other ways you can recover after a disaster strikes. https://consumer.ftc.gov/features/dealing-weather-emergencies#stayingalert

Dealing with the aftermath of a hurricane, tsunami or other disaster is never easy. But knowing how to recognize and avoid common scams can help you protect your finances and personal information.

• Avoid clean-up and repair scams. After natural disasters, unlicensed contractors and scammers may appear with promises of quick repairs, clean-up, and debris removal. Some may demand upfront payment and not do the work, claim you’ll get a discount but quote outrageous prices, or lack needed skills. Before anyone starts work:
  - Check them out. Ask for IDs, licenses, proof of insurance, and references. See if local contact info is on their trucks. Check with state and local consumer protection offices for complaints.
  - Get more than one estimate. Ask people you trust for recommendations.
  - Read the contract carefully. Make sure all promises are in writing and that you understand what you’re signing.
  - Never pay in cash. And never make the final payment until the work is done and you’re satisfied with it.

• Spot imposters. Imposter scams come in many varieties but work the same way: a scammer pretends to be someone you trust and tries to convince you to send them money or give personal information.
  - Some scammers pretend to be government officials, safety inspectors or utility workers who say immediate work is required. Ask for IDs. If anyone asks you for money or your financial information, like your bank account or credit card number, it’s a scam.

• Be wise to rental scams. Rental listing scams. If you’re looking for a place to live, steer clear of people who tell you to wire money or who ask for security deposits or rent before you’ve met or signed a lease.
  - Some scammers hijack a real rental or real estate listing by changing the email address or other contact information, and placing the modified ad on another site.
  - Other rip-off artists make up listings for places that aren’t for rent or don’t exist, and try to lure you in with the promise of low rent or great amenities.

• Spot disaster-related charity scams. Scammers will often try to make a quick profit from the misfortune of others, including when disasters strike. Check out the FTC’s advice on donating wisely and avoiding charity scams.

If you think you see a scam, talk with someone. Your story could help someone avoid that scam. Then report it to the Federal Trade Commission at ReportFraud.ftc.gov. Your report could help the FTC stop the scammers.
Reflections from a Survivor

By Joy Vane, Society for Military Widows

What I learned when my spouse passed away, if you have recently had the tragic experience of losing a loved one who was an Army retiree, I sincerely hope my reflections will help you through the grieving process. Unfortunately, you receive a new title, "Military Widow/Widower," with two new enduring friends, "Grief" and "Loss."

When will your new "friends" finally depart? Every person is different, it depends how resilient you are, some come through quickly when others will keep their new "friends" for the rest of their lives. Re-invent yourself - volunteer your services, get involved in your church activities, get passionate again with one of your special interests, grab a true friend and start walking, visit your military library for their great selection of books... the bottom line is to keep busy! Your immune system may suffer so be aware of your health issues.

It is recommended that you do not make any major decisions for the first year as a widow/widower. Your mental state may be fragile making you susceptible to fraud. Consider enlisting a legal and financial professional to guide you through your single journey - a lawyer to assist in setting up a will or trust (the military lawyer is NOT available to service this need), a financial advisor can provide expertise advice with money matters, personal finances, and investments. Finally, do not forget that clergy can help with the grieving process.

In summary, ensure you know what is covered by your health insurance every month, 2 premium which is the amount you pay for your health insurance, and 3 deductibles which is the amount you pay for covered health care services before your insurance plan starts to pay, and finally 3-out-of-pocket costs which are the costs of medical care that are not covered by insurance. These "out of pocket" expenses are not covered by your health plan and in most cases are not reimbursable.

Did your spouse desire to be buried at sea by the spreading his or her ashes? You still can have your loved one remembered at the National Memorial Cemetery of the Pacific (Punchbowl) with a marker. Contact the National Cemetery Scheduling Office at 1-800-535-1117 for further information.

To remain eligible for your military benefits, you will need to be reissued a new dependent identification card. Submit a copy of your spouse death certificate to have a new card issued. Contact the Retirement Office at (808) 655-1514 for the nearest office to get a new identification card. (Note: At age 65, ID cards become permanent and do not need to be renewed further.)

If your spouse had a service-connected disability and if his/her death is attribute to this disability, you as the surviving spouse should establish eligibility for Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC). A compensation may be available to you through the Veterans Administration. You can request the assistance of a Veteran Service Officer (VSO) to assist you at filing a claim - remember, it is never too late to file a claim with the VA. For those living in the City and County of Oahu; if your spouse had a 100% disability, your home is exempted from all property taxes except the minimum tax (currently the minimum real property tax is $300). For more information can be found at: http://www.realpropertyhonolulu.com/extensions/exemption-information/

Intricacies of Health Care Coverage

By Erica Lehmkuhl 1SG USA (Ret)

A significant benefit while serving in the active duty military is the free health care coverage. Unfortunately, we do not learn of the intricacies of health care coverage until we purchase an insurance plan once we retire or leave the active duty military. This can be a significant learning event as we attempt to navigate the complexities of health care. My experience with the complexities of medical coverage are described below.

Health care insurance generally consists of three payments; 1-premium which is the amount you pay for your health insurance every month, 2-deductibles which is the amount you pay for covered health care services before your insurance plan starts to pay, and finally 3-out-of-pocket costs which are the costs of medical care that are not covered by insurance. These "out of pocket" expenses are not covered by your health plan and in most cases are not reimbursable.

Once I retired, I finally had time to attend physical therapy sessions to rehabilitate my shoulder. I attended sessions over a six month period and thought that since my Primary Care Manager (PCM) had referred me to a private medical provider my expenses were 100% covered. I was shocked when I received a medical bill for $750.00 in copays! I immediately called the health care provider and then the health plan insurer because I thought it must be a mistake. I quickly learned I was the one who was mistaken. Unlike my referrals to private health care providers while on active duty that covered the entire cost of care, as a retiree I was responsible for co-pays and deductibles. The cost varies based on the type of care but my co-pays for physical therapy were $30.00 per session. I also found out that emergency room out of pocket expenses are $64.00 and only covered if I receive treatment from a designated medical treatment facility. In summary, ensure you know what is covered by your health care insurer and what isn’t based on the type of care you’re referred to off post.
Aloha and Mahalo to the Retiree Community!

I hope this newsletter finds you and your families healthy and well. As you know the Appreciation Day for the last two years was held via virtual-hybrid due to COVID but I’m excited to say that this year’s Appreciation Day event will be held in-person. We have a great line-up of speakers who will be covering a lot of interesting information at this year’s event so I hope everyone will try to fit the event into their schedules.

In addition to supporting the Hawaii Army Soldier For Life Council and the annual Appreciation Day, the Retirement Services Office (RSO) also supports Soldiers before, during and after their transition from wearing the uniform and out of the uniform. The RSO office continues to serve our retired Soldiers by providing assistance with address changes, update direct deposit information, widow claims processing, retired pay inquiries-1099, and more. If you have any questions or need any assistance, please feel free to visit us at the Soldier Support Center Schofield Barracks-Hawaii.

Mahalo for your service and sacrifice to our great country!
