Retiree Update

Thanks to the hard work of SMSgt John Chun, a retiree out of engine shop, we finally got Col James Ashford's e-mail address. As mentioned in an earlier update, he lives in Independence, Oregon and build airplanes. Col Ashford sold the plane in the photo (note name on plane) and has built another one. The colonel writes, "All is well with me except I lost my wife almost two years ago. However, two of my three daughters and all of my grandchildren are within driving distance from here."

I got a long distance e-mail from Maj Wayne Acosta. Wayne served as the commander of the 154th Security Forces Squadron prior to transferring to the AF Reserve. This paralleled him taking a three-year tour with his Navy job to Okinawa. Wayne is working issues related to the transfer of 8,000 Marines to Guam in the next few years. His wife, Mary Chris, and their two daughters are enjoying life there.

I ran across MSgt Donna Von (formerly in our Communications Flight) in the commissary recently. She mentioned she will be in the AF Reserve for about another year before retiring. On the civilian side, she works in the Kunia tunnel complex. I didn't ask if she was a Federal employee or a contractor. Her husband, Gary Von, another former HIANG member on the fighter flightline, still works for contractor providing transient maintenance at Hickam AFB.

I got an e-mail from Lt Col James "Kimo" Hussey retired from the 203rd Air Refueling Squadron and the Wing Safety Office. Kimo works for a defense contractor at Hickam AFB. He continues his music career with a Hawaiian group called Pacific Music Foundation. They provided the music for the 3rd place halau at the Merry Monarch Festival. Kimo's group and the halau will perform a free concert on Thursday, May 4th. The concert starts at 1900 and will take place at the Honolulu Memorial Auditorium – the red brick building next to Honolulu Hale.

Another e-mail I got recently was from Maj Gerald J. Revuelto, a retired weapons controller from the 150/169 Aircraft Control and Warning Squadrons. He retired in the early 80's. He moved to the continent many years ago and now lives in Kingwood, Texas. Gerry writes, "I read your e-mail on missing addresses. I worked for Col. Moriguchi, worked with Clarence Jim and Norm Chang. Col Ashford was in charge of my promotion board to Captain. Is Myron Dobashi still around, I worked with him on Kauai. Would it be possible to get my name and e-mail address in one of your notes. Maybe, some of my old comrades might drop me a note." Gerry's e-mail address is: GerryArr@aol.com
