

Daniel Kahikina Akaka

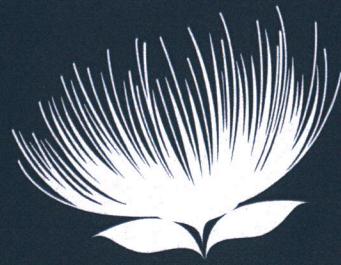

This veterans' home is proudly named after the late Hawaii Senator Daniel Kahikina Akaka. Senator Akaka was born on September 11, 1924 and raised in Pauoa Valley on the island of O'ahu.

As a teenager attending Kamehameha School, Akaka witnessed the bombing of Pearl Harbor, and later served with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers during World War II.

After his military service, he returned to Hawaii, earned degrees in education, and dedicated himself to teaching and public service, holding various roles in Hawaii's education system and state government.

Elected to the U.S. House in 1976 and appointed to the Senate in 1990, he was the first Native Hawaiian and only Chinese American in the Senate, where he championed veterans' rights, expanded GI Bill benefits, and sought recognition for overlooked Asian American and Pacific Islander veterans. Known for his spirit of Aloha, Senator Akaka worked to improve lives and foster mutual respect, a legacy that continues in his name.
