29th GIs To Big Isle

HILO — Some 3,000 soldiers of the 29th Brigade will be coming to the Big Island, in three groups of 1,000 each, over the next three months.

The soldiers will train at the Pohakuloa training area.

Airlifts will begin bringing the men to Hilo today, with some 1,100 men of the first battalion scheduled to be the first group to arrive.
