Guard troops return from Kauai

HONOLULU — More than 1,000 Hawaii National Guard troops will return to their homes on Oahu, Maui, Molokai and the Big Island this weekend from hurricane-relief duty on Kauai, state Department of Defense officials reported Friday.

More than 500 soldiers from the Hawaii Army National Guard's 1st and 2nd Battalions, 299th infantry have been on Kauai since Sept. 12, the day after Hurricane Iniki devastated the island.

They will be replaced by 175 soldiers from the 1st Battalion, 487th Field Artillery, based on Oahu, officials said.
