Rest of the 29th's Veterans Arrive

Two more planeloads of Hawaii soldiers arrived in Honolulu today from Vietnam, completing the return of about 750 former members of the 29th Infantry Brigade.

The first flight landed at 1 a.m. with 207 men, and the second arrived at 4:30 a.m. with 155 more men. The men were called to active duty about 19 months ago. On Dec. 13 the brigade will be deactivated and returned to National Guard control.
