Reception Sunday for 29th Brigade

Soldiers from Oahu who were called to active duty with the Hawaii National Guard's 29th Brigade will be given a welcome - back - to - civilian - life reception Sunday afternoon at the Honolulu International Center Exhibition Hall.

The party is for members of the 29th and the 100th Battalion, 442nd Infantry who were activated May 13, 1968. The men, many of whom served in Vietnam, marched in review for the last time as active duty soldiers last Saturday at Schofield Barracks. The formal deactivation date is tomorrow.

About 3,000 are expected at the reception, set for 4 to 6 p.m. Sunday.

Tickets can be obtained by calling 737-6744.
