Guardsmen, dependents to receive new privileges

Hawai Army National Guardsmen being called to active duty with the 29th Infantry Brigade, and their dependents, will receive briefings on their rights, privileges and benefits while on active duty.

The briefings will be held on each of the islands where guardsmen are located.

A National Guard team will visit each of the islands to cover items such as pay and allowances, insurance, powers of attorney, wills, and re-employment rights and coverages under the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Act.

Guardsmen should contact their units to receive exact time and location for the briefings, officials said today.

Schedule of the briefings as follows: April 27 -- Kohala, Olaa, Honokaa, and Pahala, Hawaii; and Fort Ruger, Oahu for Brigade headquarters and Oahu elements of 1st Battalion, 299th Infantry and 1st Battalion, 487th Artillery.

April 28--Kona and Hilo, Hawaii; Fort Ruger, Oahu for 29th Support Battalion.

May 4--Molokai; Hanapepe, Kekaha and Kapaa, Kauai; and Fort Ruger, Oahu, for those missing previous briefings.

May 5--Lahaina, Wailuku and Kahului, Maui; Kaneohe, Wahiawa, and Fort Ruger, Oahu, for those missing earlier briefings.

It was also announced by 29th Infantry Brigade headquarters that all units of the brigade will drill on the weekend of May 4-5.

No other drills will be scheduled prior to the May 13 call-up, a brigade spokesman said.
