

AD AND COMMERCIAL CLUBS TO HEAR OF GUARD

The national guard is to have its innings today at the Ad club and Friday noon at the Commercial club. Today the Ad club will be addressed by Major Lenihan on the subject and the Wakefield committee will report on "What Honolulu Can Do For the Soldier".

Governor Pinkham and Mayor Lane also will address the meeting and Alvie Clark, who knows more about the municipality and its finances than any other man in the city, will tell the meeting what it has cost to keep up the 360 miles of road in the city for the past seven years.

On Friday at the Commercial club Gen. John P. Wisser will talk on the guard. Frank E. Thompson also will speak on the subject.
