Third Battalion of Fourth Regiment Makes Good Showing

(Mail Special To The Advertiser)

LIHUE, May 2.—All three companies of the Third Battalion of the Fourth Regiment, held an excellent outdoor drill Sunday afternoon. They showed up in good form, marching in time and obeying orders quickly. Several formations were made of the three companies. Guns were used by two of the companies successfully. Colonel Broadbent with Staff Officers Morrow, Nills, C. A. Rice, Putman and Kalulukou, held inspection and Maj. W. H. Rice commanded the companies.

The companies were under the direction of Capts. C. Maser, W. Moragne and E. W. Carden, respectively.

A very good showing was made and an enthusiastic audience witnessed the review.
