Gen. Webster Honored by Guard

RECEPTION CHAIRMAN-Capt. Ted. L. Burkart and Mrs. Burkart chat with the guest of honor, General Benjamin J. Webster.

A reception in honor of Major General Benjamin J. Webster, State Adjutant General, was held recently at the Castaway's Hotel. The General and his wife greeted sixteen Army and Air Force National Guard officers and their wives. This annual reception is held to let General Webster meet all National Guard officers in his command stationed on Kauai. General Webster's staff, BG F.A. Schaefer, Co. Hawaii Army Guard, BG V.A. Siefermann, Co. Hawaii Air Guard, BG F.S. Takemoto, 29th Inf Bde Co, and Col W.C. Meyer, Deputy AG also attended the

This was the last time General Webster will see his Army Officers on Kauai, for they have been federally activated and are scheduled to report to Schofield for active duty with the 29th Infantry Brigade.
