

13 Students At MCC Affected By Guard Callup

Thirteen students from Maui Community College will be affected by the National Guard call-up, according to information received from the college.

The students are: Edwin Fimental Jr., Charles Nobrega, Lionel Freitas, Alan Feiteira, Gary Vasconcellos, James S. Uno, Ernesto Ribucan, Ernest Parva, William Neilson, Cyrus M. Moore, Herbert J. Meany, Clifford Matsuda, and Thomas Gaglia.

Three choices have been given to these students by the College administration: 1 — to withdraw from school and receive a "W" for all classes; 2 — to apply for a delay on the activation date from the army; or 3 — to take the final exams early during the week of May 6-10."
