

MAUI POLOISTS

JUN 2 - 1916

EXPECT TO BE WINNERS HERE

Unusually Strong Team Will Represent Third Infantry, N. G. H., Against Army

Honolulu will witness the first polo match of the year at the new Kapiolani park polo field on Saturday afternoon, June 10, when the 3d Infantry, N. G. H., team meets the Army team of Oahu. This match will dedicate the new field, which is considered to be one of the best in America.

Much interest has been stirred up in polo circles since the announcement was made that the Maui poloists would come here for a match with the locals. The Maui four that will come here has been practising for some time, and in the recent matches with the Oahu team won two practise matches.

National Guard Four.

Maj. F. F. Baldwin will captain the National Guard team, and Capt. A. W. [unclear], Capt. Harold Rice and [unclear]
