

EXAMINATION OF GUARD OFFICERS HELD TOMORROW

June 3.
Quizzes Will Be Written and are Expected to Require
Over Three Hours

Officers of the National Guard here and on the other islands will have a busy day tomorrow, this being the date set for their examinations for commissions. The examinations will be written, will be held in the morning and are expected to last on an average of three or four hours.

Those officers of the 1st Infantry who will take them tomorrow are as follows: Captains—G. E. Schaefer, Company D; W. J. Hampton, Company M; C. R. Bostwick, Quartermaster Corps; Frank J. Dougherty, Regimental Quartermaster; Alan J. Lowrey, Company B; A. L. C. Atkinson, Machine Gun Company; Ching K. Amona, Company H; R. L. Noggle, Signal Corps; John McCandless, Company K; Louis K. Kane, Company G.

First lieutenants—M. P. Morgan, Company C; L. B. Reeves, Company D; Alex. May, adjutant 2nd Battalion; Philip Sing, Company H; R. R. Carlisle.

Second lieutenants—H. Stuart Johnson, Company M; Will Wayne, quartermaster 3rd Battalion; John N. Vamatta, Company K.

About 45 officers will take the examinations on Kauai; 40 on Maui, and 45 on Hawaii.

Two examining boards will grade the papers submitted by those taking the examinations as follows:

For captains—Col. Charles S. Lincoln, Maj. A. W. Neely, Capt. Henry P. O'Sullivan, with Capt. W. V. Kolb, recorder.

For lieutenants—Lieut.-col. W. R. Riley, Maj. Gustav Rose and Maj. M. M. Johnson, with 1st Lieut. John Hilo, recorder.