

MACHINE GUN CO. STARTS CAMPAIGN FOR 20 MEMBERS

July 7-1916
Divided into two teams, each working to enlist the most new recruits, men of the machine-gun company, 1st Infantry, N. G. H., started today on a race to line up 20 more members before next Thursday afternoon at 5:15. The losing team must buy a dinner for the winners.

At present the company, commanded by Capt. A. L. C. Atkinson, with Lawrence M. Judd as first lieutenant, has 33 members. Twenty more must be secured before the company can be mustered in. After drill last evening an informal meeting was held, at which teams for the campaign were formed, with Cpl. R. E. White heading one team, and Cpl. W. S. Rycroft the other.

On White's team are E. W. Hedemann, P. E. Spalding, W. Grace, R. B. McGrew, J. O'Dowda, W. L. Warren, W. H. Ziegler, A. A. Englehard, G. P. Wilder, C. G. Norrie, Ed Hedemann and L. A. Hicks.

Comprising Rycroft's team are A. B. Clarke, Jr., J. H. Worrall, H. E. Hoffmann, E. B. Jackson, D. L. Olson, F. A. Schaefer, Jr., R. E. Scott, J. D. Reed, E. A. Jones, Walter Vorvelt, Judge W. L. Stanley and H. L. Grace.
