

2ND COMPANY IS INSPECTED; HAS 68 MEN PRESENT

July 13-
With 68 men present out of 77 enrolled, the 2nd Company, Coast Artillery Corps, National Guard of Hawaii, was inspected Wednesday night at 7:30 by Maj. J. B. Douglas, C. A. C., of the United States army for the war department.

The inspection was to determine whether the company comes within the necessary requirements for federal recognition. Maj. Douglas' report will be forwarded to the militia bureau. It is believed that the company passed satisfactorily, as the men apparently made an excellent showing.

Two National Guard of Hawaii officials attended the inspection, Capt. G. K. Larrison, commanding the 1st Company, and 1st Lieut. S. T. Hill, commanding the 2nd. The inspection was held at the mortar battery at Fort Ruger. Three more men were present than the minimum number required by law for a full company, 65.

GUARD BANDMEN MUST ATTEND TO GET THEIR PAY

Attendance of every man in the brass band of the 1st Infantry, N. G. H., at rehearsals every Thursday night was requested today by Chief Musician A. A. Feiereisel, its director.

"We want a full attendance," he said, "because under the militia pay law, approved June 3, it is necessary that we have practically every man there, if we are to draw our salaries under the new law. We have been having attendance ranging from 20 to 22 men, but we want every man out Thursday night. We now have 28 in the band."

According to the chief musician, new instruments for every man of the band will soon arrive. Bandmen will benefit well under the militia pay law as the range of annual salaries for them is as follows: Private, $72 a year; corporal, $90; sergeant, $108; principal musician, $120; chief musician, $225.
