

Big Isle ^{8/6} training set for 29th GIs

About 600 men of the 29th Brigade will be airlifted to Hilo starting early Thursday morning by planes of the 61st Military Airlift Wing at Hickam.

The 1st Battalion, 487th Artillery will conduct training at Pohakuloa until mid-September.

About 400 tons of equipment will be taken along.

Some soldiers of the 29th already have used the Pohakuloa site for test firing of the M-551 Sheridan weapons vehicle.

The Air Force will use four C-124 Globemasters for the lift.
