

NATIONAL GUARD BAND WILL GIVE FIRST CONCERT

Splendid Program Prepared for Affair to Be Given at Young Hotel Tomorrow Night

With Governor Lucius E. Pinkham, Col. Samuel I. Johnson, the adjutant-general, National Guard of Hawaii, and his staff attending, the first public concert of the National Guard band will be given tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at the roof garden of the Alexander Young hotel. The affair promises to be brilliant socially.

The public is invited to attend and the program, prepared by Chief Musician A. A. Feiereisel, N. G. H., is one of exceptional merit, and should give the musicians a chance to show their skill. The numbers are:

March—Guardsman ..... Teves
Overture—Poet & Peasant.... Suppe Waltz—Lion and the Mouse.....
..... Theo. Bendix
(a) Dear Old Rose (Cornet Solo)
..... Geo. W. Meyers
(b) Dream of Spring (Marceau Characteristic) ... P. Hans Flath

Lieut. William C. Whitener, U. S.
A., inspector-instructor of the National Guard of Hawaii, will inspect Company D, 1st Infantry, tonight in the armory. The company is now up to required strength.

The program for the smoker of Company B of the National Guard at the Armory this evening is now complete.
Besides numerous performers who are too modest to allow their names to appear in print, according to Captain Paul Super, the following will endeavor to lighten the evening: Violin solo, Clyde Baldwin; tumbling by G. E.
Jackson; piano solo by Carlos Carceres, the well known musician; a monologue by H. W. Newcomb; a recital by Alapaki Smith, and singing by W. B.
Bolster.

Several enlisted men of the 1st Infantry, National Guard of Hawaii, will be honorably discharged by the commanding
