

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

Two new National Guard companies, the engineers and Filipinos, were reviewed last night by Lieut. W. C. Whitener, the inspector-instructor. More than 100 men of the Filipino company turned out, while the engineers were present 50 strong. Company B had to maneuver on the palace grounds, owing to the use of all available drill space in the armory by the two other companies.