

NATIONAL GUARD NOTES

Thursday night will be a busy, jolly and musical one for the National Guard of Hawaii.

Col. Samuel I. Johnson, the adjutant-general, will be entertained by the officers of the National Guard at a dinner in the Commercial Club. As commander-in-chief of the N. G. H., Governor Lucius E. Pinkham has signified his intention of being present.

The same evening, the 1st Infantry band, N. G. H., will give an open-air concert on the roof garden of the Alexander Young Hotel. Chief Musician Feiereisel has arranged an exceptionally fine program. This will be the band's first public appearance, outside the Memorial Day parade, in which they played for the regiment.

TRY MURINE EYE REMEDY
For Red, Weak, Watery Eyes and
GRANULATED EYELIDS
Murine Doesn't Smart—Soothes Eye Pain